

CORNERSTONE NATURAL HORSEMANSHIP

APRIL 2010 SCHEDULE

Groundwork

FRI. APRIL 2 & WED. APRIL 14 5:00 pm– 7:00 pm

2 hour workshop

This course is a must-have for any person or horse. If you have not attended a groundwork course, you don't know what you're missing! Learn how to ask for and build respect, lightness and responsiveness in your horse, not to mention become a more effective horse-person.

skills will be enhanced by the follow-up groundwork course*

Groundwork Follow-up

FRI. APRIL 16 & WED. APRIL 28 5:00 pm– 7:00 pm

2 hour workshop

This follow-up is just that; to solidify techniques learned in groundwork course, and feel more in control of yourself and your horse. The concepts learned will become more natural to you and you will be a better leader for your horse after taking this course.

Intro to Ride

SATURDAY, APRIL 10 1:00 pm– 5:00 pm

4 hour workshop

Have you been too afraid to saddle up and go for a ride due to lack of confidence; in yourself or your horse? The first step is learning to be an effective leader by beginning on the ground. Then as you learn to 'talk your horses' language, you will gain trust in yourself and your horse and be on your way to ride safely and confidently.

CORNERSTONE NATURAL HORSEMANSHIP

APRIL 2010 SCHEDULE

Ask More of your Horse

SAT. APRIL 24 10:00 am– 5:00 pm

1 day clinic: lunch provided

This course is aimed at riders who want to advance their horsemanship and learn to direct not just the horses' feet, but his whole body to yield to the lightest suggestion. We will develop a better feel on the reins and an 'independent seat' as a rider.

Intermediate Riding

FRI. APRIL 2, 16, 30 9:00 am– 1:00 pm

4 hour workshop

For riders who have attended a groundwork course and are ready for more refinement in their riding. Learn how to get in time with and feel the feet and be a more fluid rider.

Monday night DROP-IN

EVERY MONDAY NIGHT

5:00 pm–7:00 pm

For riders who have attended horsemanship courses here at the facility. This will not be a clinic, but rather a self directed drop-in night for like minded horse enthusiasts.
